BOSTON, DECEMBER 17.

THE reſpectable towns of Salem, Cape Anne, Concord, Leiceſter, Brookline, Peterſham, and many others, we hear will ſpeedily meet in order to come into ſimilar meaſures with this town, at this moſt alarming criſis.

DECEMBER 28. Tueſday the 22d of this inſtant December, was obſerved in the ancient town of Plymouth, as a day of public feſtivity, in commemoration of the important event, the landing of their forefathers in that place. In the morning the Rev. Mr. Robbins (having been previouſly requeſted) delivered to a numerous and reſpectable congregation, (conſiſting of a number of the Reverend Gentlemen of the Clergy and others, inhabitants of Plymouth and the towns in the vicinity) a diſcourſe adapted to the occaſion, from thoſe remarkable words of the Pſalmiſt, "For he eſtabliſhed a teſtimony in Jacob, and "appointed a law in Iſrael, which he commanded our fathers, "that they ſhould make them known to their children, that "the generations to come might know them, even the children "which ſhould be born; who ſhould ariſe and declare them to "their children, that they might ſet their hope in GOD, and "not forget the works of God; and keep his commandments." The profound ſilence and ſolemn attention which was obſervable throughout this vaſt concourſe of people, ſufficiently demonſtrated their approbation of the ſentiments of the ſpeaker. A plain and elegant entertainment was prepared at a public houſe, at which the Gentlemen of the Clergy, and a large number of others, the moſt reſpectable of the congregation were preſent. The afternoon paſſed in recapitulating and recollecting a variety of curious anecdotes of our venerable predeceſſors, ſubjects at this time peculiarly pleaſing. The evening was ſpent at Old Colony-Hall in the moſt ſocial manner. Joy, gratitude, and pleaſure was apparent in the countenances of every perſon, thro' the whole of this agreeable day and evening.

JANUARY 4. A letter from Plymouth in England, dated October 4. ſays, "Yeſterday came in a fleet of tranſports, to take in troops for St. Vincent in the Weſt-Indies."

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) JANUARY 11.

Laſt Thurſday a conſiderable bunch of full blown Panſies was gathered in the garden of Mr. Caleb Earl, of this town, which flowers were produced merely by the mildneſs of the ſeaſon, without any aſſiſtance of art more than is commonly uſed in all open gardens, and are ſtill to be ſeen at this printing-office: In the ſame garden have been gathered, within a few days ſtate, fine cabbage ſprouts, marigold, and dandelions, full blown; in another garden in town, we hear there are green peaſe near four inches high; and in ſhort, by accounts from every quarter of the town and country, the whole vegitable world ſeems juſt ready to ſtart forth, dreſſed in all the charms of blooming May.

Laſt Tueſday between eleven and twelve o'clock, A. M. Captain Robert Keeler, of his Majeſty's ſhip Mercury, accompanied by a number of officers belonging to the navy, proceeded to the Court-Houſe in this town, in two ranks, carrying with them his Majeſty's commiſſion, appointing the Honourable Joſeph Wanton, the Hon. Daniel Horſmanden, the Hon. Frederick Smyth, the Hon. Peter Oliver, and the Hon. Robert Auchmuty, commiſſioners to inquire into, and report unto his Majeſty, a full and true account of all the circumſtances relative to the attacking, plundering, and burning, his Majeſty's ſchooner the Gaſpee; and to the aſſembling, arming, training, and leading on the people concerned therein, and to the concerting and preparing the ſaid attack, and of all other inſults or obſtructions, which have been given to Lieutenant Dudingſton, and to his Majeſty's ſervice in general in the colony of Rhode-Iſland, &c. and being in the Council Chamber, waited until the arrival of the commiſſioners, when the commiſſion was publicly delivered, and proclaimed in preſence of a great number of perſons; after which James Brenton and James Clarke, Eſquires, were appointed ſecretaries; and the court have ſet every day ſince, for the diſpatch of buſineſs.

Laſt Saturday, about one o'clock, an expreſs arrived in town, with diſpatches, as we hear, from Admiral Montagu, to the honourable commiſſioners for inquiring into the circumſtances of burning the Gaſpee, &c. and it is ſaid that the Admiral is expected in town on Tueſday or Wedneſday, to produce, for examination, as we underſtand, the famous AARON the BLACK, alias, the AMERICAN BRITAIN, and ſome OTHERS, who, we learn, have for ſome time paſt, been kept under ſevere diſcipline for the aforeſaid purpoſe!!!

Laſt Thurſday morning a fire broke out, in the tan-houſe of Mr. Winter Calef, in Boſton, which deſtroyed a great quantity of leather, bark, &c. and five or ſix dwelling houſes and ſhops.

Laſt Wedneſday, the General Aſſembly of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay met at Boſton, when his Excellency Governor Hutchinſon, made a very learned, ſenſible SPEECH! eſtimated, by ſome, fully equal to a FIFTEEN HUNDRED pounder!

The Hon. the General Aſſembly of this colony meet this day, at Eaſt-Greenwich, by adjournment.

From the PROVIDENCE GAZETTE.

Pleaſe to give your readers the following extract from a ſermon, which was lately delivered in a neighbouring town.

To all people who fear God, and regard the welfare of mankind.

"Ariſe, thou that ſleepeſt, and call upon thy God."

"THIS period, 1772, is big with the fate of America---and the whole Britiſh empire now trembles on the brink of ruin. Thoſe that ſhall live in future time will mark this æra with admiration, while they read the hiſtory of our day, filled with important changes, and mighty revolutions.

"Many names will go down to poſterity, from this period, black with guilt, and covered with infamy. Not a few will act up to the character of men, be recorded in the liſt of fame, and ſhine with immortal glory.

"Whatſoever a man ſoweth, that ſhall he reap; whatſoever we ſow in time, we ſhall reap in eternity. This life is but the preface to our exiſtence, and as this is written, ſo will the eternal volume be! My fellow immortals! how important to our eternal felicity is the wiſe improvement of human days? Let us ſeize the flying moments, as they roll from the Almighty hand, and write upon them honour and immortality! Let the divine honour, and the univerſal happineſs of mankind, ever be in our view, and purſued with the ardour of angels, when executing the commands of heaven! Remember that God looks on, time makes haſte, death draws near, and eternity will ſoon ſeal our doom!

"As my audience, at this general convention, conſiſts of clergymen, legiſlators, and the principal inhabitants of America, I ſhall addreſs the different orders.

"My brethren in the miniſtry, our work is always great, and infinitely important; and in this evil day, the voice of wiſdom cries loud to miniſters, to watch and labour with double diligence and ardour, for the ſouls of men. We are bound by the command of God to watch for the temporal, as well as ſpiritual ſalvation of the people. As our duty with regard to the latter is often urged from the deſk, I ſhall chiefly urge the former. It is a truth not to be concealed, my brethren, that we are verily and notoriouſly guilty of great omiſſion of duty; we have not, in theſe wicked times, borne conſtant and faithful teſtimony againſt the growing ſins in the land; againſt tyranny, and unfaithfulneſs in rulers; we have been afraid of offending them, the fear of man has brought us into the ſnare of ſin. Curſed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully. Doth not this curſe belong to ſome of us? We ſee tyranny advancing, (which is the parent of all manner of abomination) and have we cried aloud to warn the people to guard againſt the dreadful evil? No; we are many of us guilty, guilty, guilty, and I believe the anger of God is kindled againſt us for our great neglect of duty in this matter! Have we often and ſolemnly warned the people againſt the profanation of the Lord's name and day, and other growing ſins in the land? If our conſciences condemn us, let us now engage earneſtly, and double our diligence in the cauſe of freedom and godlineſs. Let us teach our people, not only in public, but from houſe to houſe, warning every man, and beſeeching every man, to forſake evil ways, to practiſe holineſs, and to ſupport freedom and juſtice againſt growing oppreſſion and tyranny. And as there are but few men of letters in country towns, who are acquainted with the hiſtory of mankind, and the deſtruction that tyranny has made in the world, we are bound, by the love of God and man, to ſet apart a day to deliver a lecture to the people of our charge, upon government and the rights of the people. This is an important duty, which every one who is an ambaſſador from Him, who came into the world to make us free indeed, ought immediately to be put in practice. My dear brethren, this is a moſt weighty concern, for, as far as means are connected with the end, the eternal ſalvation of millions may depend on the preſervation of freedom! As tyranny always produces wickedneſs, we know not where its dreadful effects may end! By it millions may be made wicked, and for that wickedneſs be miſerable for ever. But words fail to expreſs the importance of our duty in this infinite concern, or the meaſure of our ſin, if we neglect it. I know it is often ſuggeſted, that miniſters of the goſpel have nothing to do in civil affairs; but as I know this ſuggeſtion came originally from the father of lies, and is big with ruin to mankind, let us ſay to all oppoſers of truth and righteouſneſs, The Lord rebuke thee; and go on ſtedfaſt in the name of the Lord, until we have built up the kingdom of liberty and righteouſneſs in the world. Thus let us be faithful until death, and the King eternal will give us a crown of life in his kingdom of liberty and love.

"I truſt none, in this land of light, are kept from their duty in the cauſe of freedom, by the blaſphemous doctrine of paſſive obedience, which makes the God of love the author of tyranny.---Such a doctrine, an able divine once ſaid, "came from hell,"---and thither let it be ſent, for it is calculated only for that meridian.

"I will now addreſs the legiſlators, and gentlemen in civil life. Brethren, I bleſs God, that tyranny has not yet ſhut my mouth, nor your ears; that we may once more ſpeak to each other of temporal and ſpiritual ſalvation.---Let us work while life laſts, for time and death make rapid ſpeed, and will ſoon hurry us off the ſtage---therefore, what our hand findeth to do, let us do it with all our might, for we muſt ſoon bid the world farewell.---The great buſineſs of life, for every man is to promote the glory of God, and the happineſs of mankind; let this be the employment of our life, and death will be a paſſage to glory. My brethren, we live in an evil day, tyranny and vice (inſeparable companions) make rapid progreſs, and threaten univerſal ruin; therefore let the friends of God and man make a ſolemn ſtand againſt thoſe fiends---and in the name of the Moſt High go forth againſt His and our enemies.---

"The ſame ſpirit that dictates the objection againſt miniſters inſtructing the people in politics, ſays, that none but miniſters ſhould inſtruct the ignorant or wicked in religion; and thus by the devices of Satan, and the folly of men, we are like to have little or no religion or liberty in the world.---But the command of God binds all men, of every denomination, to ſupport liberty and religion, and releaſes none from the work.----We are all inſtructed in the books of reaſon, conſcience, and revelation; let us now obey their commands, and preſs forward in the race of glory, for our works is infinitely important, our moments but few, and death will ſoon ſtop our purſuit!---Let not the fear of man, the love of gold, or fondneſs of honour, bribe or delude us; may we not account even life itſelf dear, if we can ſecure to the preſent, and to future generations, the unſullied glory of virtue and freedom---If from right principles we can do this, we ſhall reap the fruits of our labours in his preſence where is fulneſs of joy, through an eternity of ages to come!----Let us, all, in our various ſpheres of life, unite with ſacred ardour in promoting the honour of God, and the welfare of our fellow men, and be invincible to the ungodly enemies of freedom and virtue---Then will the eternal God of love who delighteth in the happineſs of his creatures, ſhine upon us in time, and crown us with glory in eternity."

The following may be depended upon as a genuine extract of the letter from Lord Dartmouth, to the Governor of Rhode-Iſland, dated Whitehall, September 4, 1772.

"THE particulars of that atrocious proceeding (referring to the burning the Gaſpee ſchooner) have by the King's command been examined and conſidered with the greateſt attention; and although there are ſome circumſtances attending it, in regard to the robbery and plunder of the veſſel, which ſeparately conſidered, might bring it within the deſcription of an act of piracy; yet in the obvious view of the whole tranſaction, and taking all the circumſtances together, the offence is in the opinion of the law ſervants of the crown, who have been conſulted upon that queſtion, of a much deeper dye, and is conſidered in no other light, than as an act of high treaſon, viz. levying war againſt the King.

"And in order that you may have all proper advice and aſſiſtance in a matter of ſo great importance; his Majeſty has thought fit, with the advice of his privy council, to iſſue his royal commiſſion, under the great ſeal of Great-Britain, nominating yourſelf and the chief juſtices of New-York, New-Jerſey, and the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, together with the judge of the vice-admiralty court eſtabliſhed at Boſton, to be his Majeſty's commiſſioners for enquiring into and making report to his Majeſty, of all the circumſtances relative to the attacking, plundering, and burning the Gaſpee ſchooner. The King truſts, that all perſons in the colony will pay a due reſpect to his royal commiſſion, and that the buſineſs of it will be carried on without moleſtation; at the ſame time the nature of this offence, and the great number of perſons who appear to have been concerned in it, make every precaution neceſſary. His Majeſty has therefore for the further ſupport in the execution of this duty, thought fit to direct me to ſignify his pleaſure to Lieutenant General Gage, that he do hold himſelf in readineſs to ſend troops to Rhode-Iſland, whenever he ſhall be called upon by the commiſſioners for that purpoſe, in order to aid and aſſiſt the civil magiſtrates in the ſuppreſſion of any riot or diſturbances, and in the preſervation of the public peace. I have only to add upon that head, that his Majeſty depends on the care and vigilance of the civil magiſtrates of the colony, to take the proper meaſures for the arreſting and committing to cuſtody, in order to their being brought to juſtice, ſuch perſons, as ſhall, upon proper information made before them, or before his Majeſty's commiſſioners, appear to have been concerned in the plundering and deſtroying the Gaſpee ſchooner.

"It is his Majeſty's intention in conſequence of the advice of his privy council, that the perſons concerned in the burning the Gaſpee ſchooner, and in the other violences which attended that daring inſult, ſhould be brought to England and tried; and I am therefore to ſignify to you his Majeſty's pleaſure, that ſuch of the ſaid offenders as may have been or ſhall be arreſted and committed within the colony of Rhode-Iſland, be delivered to the care and cuſtody of Rear-Admiral Montagu, or the commander in chief of his Majeſty's ſhips in North-America for the time being, or to ſuch officers as he ſhall appoint to receive them; taking care that you do give notice to the perſons accuſed, in order that they may procure ſuch witneſſes on their behalf as they ſhall judge neceſſary; which witneſſes, together with all ſuch as may be proper to ſupport the charge againſt them, will be received and ſent hither with the priſoners."

NEW-LONDON, DECEMBER 25.

"Laſt Saturday ſailed from hence the ſloop Miſſiſſippi, Capt. Goodrich, bound for Penſacola and Miſſiſſippi, (via New-York) having on board a committee appointed by the company of military adventurers, to reconnoitre the lands lately granted by the crown, to Major General Lyman, and the company of military adventurers, bounded weſt on the river Miſſiſſippi, and north on the river Yaſou, between lat. 32 and 34."

NEW-YORK, JANUARY 4.

Extract of a letter from London.

"We have the pleaſure to inform the public, that the Counteſs of Huntington has purchaſed of the heirs of the late Rev. Mr. Whitefield, their rights in the orphan houſe in Georgia, in order more effectually to ſecure to the Britiſh colonies the advantages of that ſeminary, and render it a public bleſſing. She has, to eſtabliſh and ſuperintend it, engaged proper perſons, who are to ſail in the Georgia Packet, for that place, and are expected to arrive there almoſt as ſoon as this account."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of character in London, per the laſt packet.

----"I hear your militia are put on a good footing, and that you are marching, and counter-marching: It is well; but I am moſt deſirous you ſhould fortify; as ſure as you live if you do not, the town will be burnt about your ears in the next war; and in a couple of years, or ſooner, ſuch an event is like to take place."

Several letters from London by the laſt packet ſay, that the miniſtry are determined to uſe their influence in parliament for a repeal of the act impoſing a duty on all teas exported to the colonies from Great-Britain.

We can with confidence aſſure the public, that about ten days ago, there was at one time, in the different ſlips of this harbour, no leſs than 600,000 oyſters for ſale.

Dutcheſs County, New-York, November 26.

About two months ago, two mad dogs appeared in this neighbourhood, and bit ſeveral animals, of which the greateſt number were ſoon after ſeized with the ſymptoms of that peculiar madneſs, and died. Among them was a cow belonging to one Mr. Jacklin. This unhappy man, anxious to preſerve his creature, and not apprehenſive of the danger to which he expoſed himſelf, while the ſymptoms of madneſs were on her, made uſe of ſeveral remedies for her relief. And particularly, in order to give her a drench, he thruſt his hand, upon which at that time he happened to have an ulcer, into her throat, and graſped her tongue, and after the cow's death, to ſave her hide, had the farther imprudence to flea her. From that time until the 6th inſtant, he continued in his uſual health, but on that day he drooped, complained much of a general uneaſineſs and diſtreſs, and paſſed the ſucceeding night with much anxiety and reſtleſſneſs. On the next morning the characteriſtic ſymptom of the canine madneſs, the hydraphobia (or dread of water) came on; within twelve hours he became furiouſly mad, and on the 8th, at noon, he died.

PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 30.

On Thurſday laſt died here Mr. David Hall, Printer, in the 58th year of his age.---The virtues, which conſtitute and adorn the character of a good citizen, and render a private life amiable and exemplary, were entirely poſſeſſed and practiſed. His benevolence and generoſity are well known to many, and his candour and impartiality to all who knew him. In him the poor have loſt a liberal friend. His frequent charities, flowing equally from principle and a heart-felt ſympathy, were not beſtowed with a ſparing hand, but always proportioned to the diſtreſs of the object. He was a ſincere, diſintereſted, and warm friend. His kind and affectionate deportment in his family, his conſtant care and tender anxiety to promote the intereſt and happineſs of all thoſe, with whom he was connected, will long endear his memory to his friends, and leave, to his afflicted family, a laſting occaſion to mourn his irretrievable loſs.---His remains were, on Sunday laſt, interred in Chriſt's Church burying ground, attended by a great number of reſpectable inhabitants.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) JANUARY 6.

We are informed that very lately ſome people belonging to this province and South-Carolina, going to view the Okonee lands, were met by ſome Creek Indians, one of whom having carried off a blanket from the white men, was fired at by one of the company named Auſtin, which made him drop the blanket,

NEW-YORK, JANUARY 11.

The SPEECH of his Excellency WILLIAM TRYON, Esq; Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Colony of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same.

To the Council and the General Assembly of the said Colony, on Wednesday the 6th of January, 1773.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the General Assembly,

THE Experience You gave me the last Session of the Liberality of Your Sentiments towards me, and Your ready Concurrence with the Measures I then proposed, flatter me at this Time with the like favourable Attention to what I have to recommend to You.

It has been the peculiar Misfortune of this Country to have remained even to this Day, with most of its Boundaries undetermined; a Circumstance that has, in a considerable Measure, retarded the Settlement of the Frontiers, and proved the Source of many unhappy Disputes with its neighbouring Inhabitants; and which, if not speedily settled, may probably be productive of more serious Consequences. Impressed with this Idea, soon after my Arrival in this Government, I opened a Correspondence with Governor Hutchinson, on the Necessity of finally establishing a Partition Line between this and the Massachusetts Government. The Governor moved his Assembly to second our Wishes, and an Act passed to enable proper Persons to undertake its Accomplishment. I shall therefore lay before You the Correspondence and Papers on this Subject, wishing You may co-operate with the Massachusetts Government, by passing a similar Act for so salutary a Purpose.

I have the Satisfaction to inform You the dividing Line between this Province and the Government of Quebec, has been run this last Fall, from Lake Champlain, in the Forty Fifth Degree of North Latitude, to Connecticut River.---As the Commissioners who performed that Business, winter in Quebec, that they may be ready early in the Spring to continue that Line, from the Lake Westward to St. Lawrence River, I am to apply to You for a further Aid for that most essential Service.

The General Assembly of New-Jersey having lately passed an Act similar to your own, for ascertaining the Boundary between the two Governments, and securing certain Borderers in the quiet Possession of their Settlements; and as I am informed the King's Commission and the Proceedings had thereon, will be very speedily transmitted to his Majesty, I entertain the warmest Expectations that the Royal Decision in the Case will shortly be obtained. These Particulars appear to me to be so interesting to the Peace and Prosperity of the Country, that I could not avoid urging to you their Importance.

I have been obliged to order considerable Repairs to be made to the Mansion-House in Fort-George, to make it habitable; the Estimation of which shall be laid before You.

Gentlemen of the General Assembly,

The Sum of Money voted the last Sessions for repairing the Battery in Fort-George, has been appropriated to such necessary, useful, and ornamental Purposes, as afford the clearest Demonstrations of the Expediency and Propriety of that Vote, and cannot fail of giving Satisfaction to the Public.

Having nothing immediately in Charge from His Majesty to communicate to You, I shall at present only recommend to You to make Provision for the Extra Services I have just now mentioned; the usual Support of Government; and the necessary Supplies for his Majesty's Forces.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the General Assembly,

It is with the highest Satisfaction I view the present flourishing State of this Country, and the good Order, Industry, and Unanimity among its Inhabitants; Blessings I ardently wish to see continued and improved.

It is evident nothing can so much insure an increase of Wealth to the Colony, as a due Care that the good Quality of our Staple Commodities may establish a Reputation at Foreign Markets: Your Attention to this, as also to the Mischiefs arising from the Circulation of a large Quantity of Counterfeit Currency lately brought into this Country, are Objects deserving Your Consideration.

The Happiness I enjoy by my Royal Master's gracious Appointment of me to this Province, I acknowledge with that Duty and Affection which warms the Loyal Breast; and the friendly Consideration and Attention I have experienced from all Ranks, not only increases this Happiness, but cherishes the growing Attachment I feel for the Interest of this Colony; which, however, I am sensible, can only be extensively and beneficially drawn into Action by Your generous Aid and Assistance in the honourable Support of the Dignity of his Majesty's Government, and the Felicity of his People.

WILLIAM TRYON.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London to his friend in Georgia, dated the 4th of November last.

"I congratulate you most sincerely on the concurrence of the Lords of Trade with Governor Wright's proposition respecting the Cherokee lands. The determination of their Lordships was greatly influenced by the Governor's resolution to carry the plan into execution in his own person, and he is now deliberating upon the measures necessary to be taken previous to his departure. Indeed I believe, if the Governor had not said that he would go and manage this business himself, it would have failed altogether; so that the colony stands indebted to him for every advantage this important affair may procure it."

St. JOHN'S, (in Antigua) November 12.

Extract of a letter from St. Vincent, dated October 30.

"We were this morning surprized by a constant firing, occasioned by a party of Caraibs attacking a party of 18 men of the 31st regiment, under the command of Captain Crafton, who had been left behind sick. They killed seven men and a serjeant, and wounded three. Crafton's party however put them to flight, and found five of their carcases in the woods, also several fuzees, baberfacks, handkerchiefs, &c. thrown away in their precipitation.

"We are informed the Caraibs shot a centinel as he was bathing in the river Niambou, and that a serjeant, who was posted at the head of a detachment at some little distance from the camp, was murdered in an inhuman manner by these savages. They cut off his nose and right arm, and scooped out both his eyes."

By a vessel which left St. Vincent last Wednesday, we learn, that nothing very material had happened between the Troops and the Caraibs, nor has the loss on either side been very considerable in killed and wounded, but that the sick were numerous. The Troops were at last permitted to cross the river Niambou and take possession of the enemy's intrenchments on the other side; a well-thrown shell opened a free passage in one place; and at another, where they hoped to surround a body of the enemy, the guide, mistaking the intended route, led them against a precipice, which gave the enemy time to get away; and that upon this occasion it appeared the Caraibs did not know how to defend themselves against regulars. That the Caraibs have other intrenchments further on in the Quarter of Grand Sable, but that the troops only wish they would make such a work as they could trust themselves in to be attacked. That numbers of the Caraibs are already gone to St. Lucia and the other French Islands, and others daily going to wait (as it is supposed) the retreat of the troops from St. Vincent, and then return to their own country.

That the inhabitants are not apprehensive the regulars will find it difficult to force their way over all the accessible parts of the Caraibs country; but at the same time it is a doubt, whether this would promote the object of the present enterprize, or, on the contrary, involve that unhappy Island in still farther calamity. That there seems to be no want of freedom in censuring the General's conduct, out of his presence; but that some few others have more charity for a Gentleman lately come to this part of the world, not acquainted with all the circumstances of an affair which had its rise four years ago, upon whom is put the execution of an enterprize he did not plan: An enterprize in its original so concerted, that it cannot be said, that either a vigorous or inactive conduct can procure what may be properly called success. That the inhabitants of St. Vincent are still obliged to continue upon their guard on the frontiers of the settlements; that their prime negroes form a considerable body, which attend the regulars, and behave well; that the negroes in general have hitherto continued to shew a fidelity and attachment to their masters beyond all past experience and example in other Islands; yet the distraction in affairs, and the effect on the credit of the Island in Great Britain, may be easily conceived; in short, it is hard to say whether the Caraibs or the inhabitants suffer most. That whatever may be the event of the present proceedings, it is expected that hereafter the conduct of the servants of the crown, respecting the Caraibs for four years past, will be the subject of parliamentary enquiry; when it may be hoped, the good faith and honour of the Royal word, pledged under the Great Seal of Great Britain, will be rescued from the apprehensions of such British subjects as have not interested views to serve, and to the satisfaction of other nations.

The Lady of Major Dundas, and the Commander of one of his Majesty's ships, died lately at St. Vincent.

We hear two sloops are cast away at Berbuda, one from Georgia loaded with lumber, the other from Bermuda, with building stone and a large quantity of ducks and onions, both bound for Antigua. Both both carcases are lost, but no lives.

BASSETERRE, (St. Christophers) November 18.

Since the above account, by a vessel which arrived here on Monday evening last, we are informed, that nothing material had happened at St. Vincent between the regulars and the Caraibs; that all the men of war had sailed with a Train of Artillery, and the marines, to the Indian coast, in order to effectually blockade them, so that in a few days we expect to hear of the enemy's surrendering or being conquered.

St. JOHN'S, (in Antigua) Dec. 23. The following is an extract of a letter from a gentleman in St. Vincent, to his friend here, dated December 17, "We are all in hopes that the Caraib war will be soon over, as the 6th regiment, which are to relieve the 32d, are arrived here, as also the 50th regiment, which last is compleat. The 50th regiment are ordered to relieve the regiment at Jamaica, unless our General should think it necessary to detain them here; but he is determined not to do so, unless requested thereto by the Council and Assembly, who at present have no great inclination to indulge him, though it is the wish of us all that they may be detained. Lieutenant Colonel Dalrymple has superseded General Leybourne in the command of the forces, he having three days ago, received a commission appointing him Major General."

Since the first commencement of hostilities with the Caraibs in St. Vincent, there are killed, wounded and drowned, one hundred rank and file, one officer of the 14th regiment killed by accident, one ditto of the 31st killed by the enemy, Ensign Mackay of the 68th, and one officer of the 70th drowned at Grand Sable.

KINGSTON, (Jamaica) DECEMBER 19.

It is with real concern we acquaint the public, that between the hours of eleven and twelve on Friday night, the 11th instant, his Excellency Sir William Trelawney, Baronet, our very worthy and much esteemed Governor, departed this life, after a long and tedious illness, which he bore with fortitude and magnanimity; and died with that firm hope of a happy immortality, which a virtuous and admirable uniformity and consistency of character, and the calm conscience of a life well spent in the service of his country, at once inspired and justified.---During four years residence in the administration of this government, he so wisely guided and steadily held the reins of power, and maintained such an inflexible integrity of conduct (altogether unbiassed by private attachments or selfish considerations) that party herself forgot her resentments, and seemingly left no contest, but who should most promote the ease and happiness of an administration, which gave ease and happiness to all. The great and universal regret which the apprehension of this unhappy event, has, for some time past, given to all ranks of people, is the surest proof of his Excellency's merit, as well as the strongest testimonies that a government conducted on the same principles cannot fail of meeting the noblest reward, the general applause of a grateful and united people.

To the foregoing imperfect sketch of his Excellency's character, we have the satisfaction to add, that the Honourable the House of Assembly (which was then sitting) immediately, on receiving information of the melancholy event, voted a magnificent funeral to his Excellency's remains at the public expence, in order, as it is expressed in the vote, "To testify the grateful respect which the House entertain of his Excellency's merit; the sense they have of the great and universal satisfaction which his mild and equitable administration gave to all ranks of people, and the real regret they feel at his loss." The Honourable the Council concurring in this distinguished resolution, a joint committee of both branches were appointed to conduct the funeral: Accordingly, on Sunday evening the 13th instant, the body, inclosed in a coffin of lead, placed on an outward shell, covered with crimson velvet, and richly furnished, lay in state in the Council chamber, which was hung with black and illuminated with large tapers of wax; and to their great honour the members of the legislature, the officers of the navy, army, and militia; the magistrates and all ranks of people, seemed to vie with each other in shewing the most grateful testimony of respect and regard to the Governor's memory.

On Monday last, between eleven and twelve in the forenoon, his Honour John Dalling, Esq; arrived in Spanish-town, and was with the usual formalities sworn in Lieutenant-Governor, and was saluted by the artillery, regulars and militia. After which his honour was pleased to prorogue the Assembly until Tuesday the 15th instant, when, having commanded their attendance in the Council chamber, and they being met accordingly, his honour was pleased to open the session.

An ANECDOTE of a STIFF BOWL of PUNCH.

ON the 25th of October 1694, a bowl of punch was made at the Right Hon. Edward Russell's house, when he was Captain-General and Commander in Chief of his Majesty's forces in the Mediterranean seas. It was made in a fountain in a garden, the middle of four walks, all covered over-head with lemon and orange trees; and in every walk was a table, the whole length of it, covered with cold collations, &c. In the said fountain were the following ingredients, viz. four hogsheads of brandy, eight hogsheads of water, 25,000 of lemons, 20 gallons of lime juice, 1300 weight of fine white Lisbon sugar, 5 pounds of grated nutmegs, 300 toasted biscuits, and last a pipe of dry Mountain Malaga. Over the fountain was a large canopy built to keep off the rain; and there was built on purpose a little boat, wherein was a boy belonging to the fleet, who rowed round the fountain, and gave the cups to the company; and in all probability more than 6000 men drank thereof.
